Day 1 — 1: Arrive in Shannon

 An Sibin

Fly to Shannon on the West coast of Ireland. Flights are not included but can be booked on request.

At around 4:00 pm, you will be transferred from Shannon airport to the equestrian farm, approx. 2 hours away – this is where you will be staying for the first four nights. Please see “dates and prices” for notes on transfer arrangements and costs.

Today you can just relax and recover from your journey before starting your riding holiday tomorrow, or explore the walking trails around the property. In the evening, you will get to know all your fellow riders for this week. You will have dinner in a tastefully restored 300-year-old equestrian farmhouse by candlelight and turf fire.

Overnight at the farm.

Day 2 — 2: Slieve Aughty Mountains - 2-3 hours riding

After meeting your horse and getting to know one another through grooming and saddling, set out on an easy half-day ride.

The trail leads along the wooded slopes of the Slieve Aughty Mountains and across wide stretches of open bogland – a gentle introduction to the week ahead.

Overnight at the farm.

Day 3 — 3: River Shannon & Holy Island - 4-5 hours riding

Today’s ride takes you past traditional turf-cutting areas, with sweeping views over the majestic River Shannon.

Along the way, you'll learn about the Neolithic tombs and the legends surrounding the ruined monastic settlement on Holy Island.

Overnight at the farm.

Day 4 — 4: Lough Graney - 4-5 hours riding

This morning you'll head for the top of the hills overlooking endless woods and grazing land to the north, west and south. Long before you get there, you can spot way below the sandy shores of Lough Graney.

After lunch, your trail ride follows the water and soon you will be splashing right across the refreshing lake with the horses! The riding trails in the later afternoon take you through the typical farmland of rural Ireland with its lush green fields and endless old stone walls, dotted with peacefully grazing sheep and cattle.

Overnight at the farm.

Day 5 — 5: Wildflowers & Boggy Uplands - 4-5 hours riding

Today’s trail leads you along narrow country lanes and through tranquil forest tracks, where the air is filled with birdsong and the scent of pine.

Emerging onto the open boggy uplands, you’ll feel the vastness of the countryside unfolding around you – a patchwork of soft green fields and rugged heather hills. The trails are lined with vibrant gorse, foxglove, and purple heather, painting the landscape with colour.

Overnight at the farm.

EQUESTRIAN INFO

Horses

The Irish horse is renowned for its stamina, versatility and gentleness and will provide an ideal companion for an unforgettable horse riding holiday in Ireland. The horses at the equestrian farm are proud examples of several typical Irish breeds such as the tall but gentle Irish Sport Horse, the lively and clever Connemara, the fine and energetic Irish Hunter, the beautifully coloured and surefooted Tinker/ Gypsy Vanner and the intelligent and comfortable Irish Cob.

Our local team breeds many of their horses at home. Each year some new foals join the growing herd. They are specifically trained by our guides to become the willing, safe and sure-footed trail horses they are – really the perfect mount for a week-long riding holiday in the Burren!

Bertie and Nicola are your hosts. They are very friendly and open people. They have been operating trail rides in the west coast of Ireland and the Burren for many years.
