The Ksour Trail

TUNISIA

A horseback ride in Tunisia between the desert and the southern djebels. In the rugged mountains of Djebel Dahar, Arabian-Barb horses take their riders along the Ksour trail. With their fortress-like structures, the Ksour or “desert castles” are the last bastions of Berber culture. The ride continues to the dunes and oases of the Grand Erg Oriental, the largest sand sea of the Sahara. A nomadic journey for desert lovers and adventurous equestrians.

ITINERARY

Highlights

- Chance to see the ksour and desert oases.
- Long canters in the desert on Barb-Arab horses.
- Camping in tents for a true nomadic and desert experience.

Day 1 — 1: EUROPE - DJERBA - CHENINI OASIS - No riding

 Camping - Standard

International flight from Europe to the island of Djerba (possibility to arrive in Monastir with an additional transfer fee). You'll be greeted at the airport and transferred to the Chenini Oasis, approximately a 2.5-hour drive. You will pass through the Matmata region, known for its troglodyte dwellings. Upon arrival at the camp site, you'll meet your guides and horses. Dinner followed by overnight camping in tents.

Day 2 — 2: CHENINI - DOUIRET - 4-5 hours riding

 Camping - Standard

After your first Tunisian breakfast, you'll meet your horse and then ride out towards Chenini, one of the most beautiful troglodyte mountain villages in Tunisia. This village is known for housing the mosque of the seven giants, whose legend will be shared by your guide. You will then continue through the arid mountains of Chenini, stopping for a picnic along the way. After lunch, you'll head towards Douiret, passing through landscapes marked by troglodyte homes and numerous ksours - ancient Berber villages that now mostly stand as abandoned fortresses. Finally, you'll discover the ruins of the troglodyte village of Douiret, the last foothill before the Sahara. Dinner and camping overnight in tents.

Day 3 — 3: DOUIRET - GRAND ERG ORIENTAL - 6-7 hours riding

Today begins with a visit to the 800-year-old ruins of Douiret before riding through the foothills of the Dahar mountains, passing newly planted olive groves. Along the way, you will encounter herds of goats and camels that inhabit this arid region. After a final meal in this hilly landscape, your horses will tread on the first dunes of the Grand Erg Oriental. You'll meet the proud and welcoming Saharan people, and camp for the first night in the desert. Enjoy an aperitif and dinner under the stars, with traditional sand-baked bread prepared by the cook, baked in the sand and heated by embers.

Day 4 — 4: GRAND ERG ORIENTAL - KSAR GHILANE - 5-6 hours riding

Today's ride takes you through the dunes of the Grand Erg Oriental, an immense sea of sand stretching 600 kilometres east to west and 200 kilometres north to south. Lunch will be enjoyed amidst the seemingly endless dunes. After some exhilarating canters, you will reach the lush oasis of Ksar Ghilane, where you can swim in the hot springs, said to have therapeutic properties. This oasis is home to about 50 nomadic families who make a living from date palm cultivation and goat herding. Your camp will be set up under the palm trees.

Day 5 — 5: KSAR GHILANE - 2 hours riding

Today is a shorter day on horseback. After riding to the remnants of a French Fort built on Roman ruins, you will return to the oasis for lunch. The afternoon is free for relaxation, with time to explore the oasis, meet the local inhabitants, and enjoy swimming in the hot springs or take a camel ride. Dinner and overnight in the oasis.

Day 6 — 6: KSAR GHILANE - GRAND ERG ORIENTAL - 5 hours riding

A morning ride through the stunning dune landscapes surrounding the Ksar Ghilane oasis. After lunch, you will head towards the Chemsa hot spring, with another opportunity to swim if time allows. There will also be plenty of opportunities for canters today. Dinner and overnight in the desert dunes.

Day 7 — 7: GRAND ERG ORIENTAL - BIR SOLTANE - DJERBA - 2-3 hours riding

You'll enjoy your last canters through the dunes before lunch near the Bir Soltane spring. After lunch, you will say goodbye to your horses and begin the journey back to Djerba. After crossing the ferry back to Djerba Island, you will arrive in the charming town of Houmt-Souk. Dinner and overnight at the hotel.

Day 8 — 8: DJERBA - EUROPE - No riding

Depending on your flight schedule, the morning is free to stroll around Houmt-Souk, enjoy fresh orange juice in the Italian-style square, or take in the sea breeze at the fishing port. Transfer to Djerba airport (or Monastir Monastir with an additional transfer fee) for your return flight to Europe.

Trip conditions and requested experience:
You will need to be riding fit and comfortable spending several hours in the saddle.
Having previous experience of riding a trail for several days would be an advantage but it's not compulsory. Guests who do not ride regularly are requested to get back in the saddle before this trip.

Visiting a new country offers the opportunity to meet other cultures with different mentalities, therefore it is important to accept these differences and respect the local way of life.

All dietary requirements must be specified at the time of booking.

CLIMATE

The climate of Djerba is Mediterranean but tends to be semi-arid due to its location at the crossroads of Mediterranean and Saharan air masses. The annual average temperature is around 20°C, with monthly temperatures not exceeding 30°C or falling below 8°C.

In the Grand Erg Oriental and south of Douz:

From October to November and from February to April, temperatures are pleasant to warm, ranging from 35°C/20°C (October and April) to 25°C/8°C (November, February and March).

In the heart of winter, mornings and evenings are cool to cold (down to -5°C in late December). At midday, temperatures reach 18°C/20°C but drop fairly quickly in the evening.

In summer, it is very hot (around 45°C) and treks are not organised during this period.

It is customary to tip as a sign of appreciation. We would recommend €50-€60 for the whole team.

SUSTAINABLE TOURISM

1. Travel light. It's a little known fact, but the lighter you pack, the better for the environment as heavy bags will produce higher emissions (when flying a plane or driving a car!).
2. Reduce plastic waste. Take your favorite reusable bottle with you. Avoid single-use bags, cups, or straws.
3. Preserve nature. Always take your rubbish with you during the ride and recycle them. Leave all the flowers or plants as you found them, and never get too close when observing wildlife. Make sure to use eco-friendly products such as body wash or laundry detergent (if camping) to protect both your skin and the environment.
4. Choose your experiences carefully. Respect animal life by not participating in any activities that abuse wild animals (shows, elephant rides, etc.).
5. Support local populations. Buy local handicrafts, be respectful of customs, and learn about the culture of local communities.
6. Share! Raise awareness among your family and friends about sustainable tourism.
